SCOPE OF THE CONFERENCE

The topics of the Forum include the identification of the experience of theory and practice in terms of the challenges of maintaining balance in the economy, which are faced by modern finance and economic thought. These topics are particularly relevant at a time of economic disruption. Substantive discussion between scholars and practitioners will enable the formulation of lessons for the future in order to support and shape private finances, economic units, and public finances in an era of increased uncertainty in global markets. The Forum is designed to foster cooperation between science and business practice.

Yours faithfully,

dr hab. Mirosław Wasilewski, Assoc. Prof. SGGW

TOPICS OF THE CONFERENCE

1. Modern finance - needs and use in the market economy
2. Economic thought - practical application in economic processes
3. Pandemic experience - economic and financial effects on the economy
4. Functioning of the market economy under conditions of high inflation
5. Digitization in the area of financial management in the economy
6. ESG as a tool for sustainable development
7. Financing of energy transition - challenges for actors in the economy
8. Education trends in modern finance
