XV INTERNATIONAL FORUM OF FINANCE AND BANKING (MFFB)
CHALLENGES FOR FINANCE DURING ECONOMIC AND ENVIRONMENTAL TURBULENCE

Warsaw, 11.09.2023

Dear Sir/Madam,

We invite you to participate in the XV International Forum of Finance and Banking, entitled Challenges for Finance during Economic and Environmental Turbulence, organized by the Department of Finance of the Institute of Economics and Finance of the Warsaw University of Life Sciences (WULS). The Forum will be held on 16-17.11.2023 in the Warsaw University of Life Sciences (in-person or MS Teams).

The main theme of the Forum will focus on the challenges for finance during economic and environmental turbulence. Particular attention will be paid to the assessment of regulatory activity in rapidly changing conditions, the financial situation of enterprises in the period of instability, finances of local government units, agribusiness finances in the new CAP perspective, the role of banking in the turbulent economic environment, the insurance system in the economy in the context of new challenges, green finance in terms of their status and prospects, and financial market problems in the aspect of the real economy (de)stabilization.

One of the essential goals of the Forum is to facilitate the sharing of experience among practitioners and researchers in the proposed thematic areas. The exchange of views and substantive discussion will enable the formulation of conclusions aimed at supporting economic and public activities in the field of finance within a dynamic socio-economic environment.

Yours faithfully,

Chairman of Organizing Committee
Dr hab. Mirosław Wasilewski, Assoc. Prof. SGGW
