SCOPE OF THE CONFERENCE

The Forum aims to facilitate discussions between scientists and practitioners on the critical role of finance in achieving sustainable development at both micro and macroeconomic levels. In this context, sustainable financing is essential in investment decisions that balance economic, social, and environmental objectives. The IFBF will also present the effects of the FLER project, which seeks to increase financial literacy among adults, particularly those living in rural areas.

We cordially invite you,

dr hab. Mirosław Wasilewski, prof. SGGW
